1. Introduction

- 1.1. The Raleigh Education Trust (the “Trust”) is committed to providing high quality teaching and learning for our pupils. We recognise that by valuing and promoting equality and diversity for all employees and job applicants, and avoiding unlawful discrimination in employment and delivery of services, we will be able to deliver first class education.
- 1.2. We aim to create a working environment in which all individuals are able to make best use of their skills, free from discrimination or harassment, and in which all decisions are based on merit. We also value diversity and recognise the varied contributions that a diverse workforce brings to an organisation; we are committed to drawing on different perspectives and experiences of individuals which will add value to what we do.
- 1.3. We will ensure that we do not discriminate against employees on the basis of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation (the protected characteristics).
- 1.4. The principles of non-discrimination also apply to how we expect our employees to treat each other, pupils, parents and carers, visitors, clients, customers, suppliers and former employees regardless of whether the legal protection of having a protected characteristic applies.
- 1.5. This policy complies with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010. Under the general public sector equality duty of the Equality Act 2010, our trust must have due regard to the need to:
 - a) eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation.
 - b) advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not; and
 - c) foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- 1.6. The duty covers the protected characteristics of race, disability, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief, pregnancy and maternity and gender reassignment. The first part of the duty - the duty to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation - also applies to the protected characteristic of marriage and civil partnership.
- 1.7. As part of the application of this policy, the trust may collect, process and store personal data and special categories of data in accordance with our data protection policy. We will comply with the requirements of Data Protection Legislation (being (i) unless and until the GDPR is no longer directly applicable in the UK, the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) and any national implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, as amended or updated from time to time, in the UK and then (ii) any successor legislation to the GDPR or the Data Protection Act 1998) in relation to how we collect, hold and share personal data.
- 1.8. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and may be amended at any time following consultation with recognised trade unions.

2. Scope and purpose

- 2.1. This policy covers all individuals working at all levels and grades in the trust, including trustees, the trust executive team, Principals, senior leadership, employees, consultants, contractors, trainees, part-time and fixed-term employees, volunteers, casual workers and agency staff (collectively referred to as employees in this policy).
- 2.2. This policy applies to all aspects of the employment relationship and covers job advertisements, recruitment and selection, training and development, opportunities for promotion, conditions of service, pay and benefits, conduct at work, disciplinary and grievance procedures, and termination of employment. It also applies to former employees for example in the provision of employment references.
- 2.3. The purpose of this policy is to set out how we will put our commitment into action and comply with the law, to ensure that equality and diversity is promoted in the workplace and our employees are not subject to and do not commit unlawful acts of discrimination.

3. Values

3.1 Our values underpin our EDI principles.

a) Curiosity

We are committed to understanding stakeholder demographics, views and needs. By understanding our stakeholders' needs, we can better engage with different viewpoints and support these needs. We will do this by gathering stakeholder voice and demographic data, including pay gap analysis. We are open to hearing the lived experience of different stakeholders and using this to inform our plans.

b) Challenge

As an organisation, we always strive for improvement, requiring regular reflection and self-evaluation. We challenge all discrimination and outdated ways of thinking, including our unconscious bias.

c) Confidence

Our openness and curiosity build the confidence to speak up and challenge our ways of thinking. We want to build confidence in all stakeholders to express themselves without fear of discrimination due to their protected characteristics. We develop our staff through regular CPD.

d) Creativity

We take a creative approach to diversifying our curriculum, looking for ways to include different voices and celebrate different identities. We seek to provide our pupils with a broad set of experiences that will build their resilience and cultural capital to meet life's challenges confidently.

e) Character

We are an ethical and inclusive organisation. We treat all stakeholders with empathy and compassion while maintaining high standards. Discrimination is never tolerated, and we support our pupils to be resilient and tolerant individuals. We embrace and celebrate the diversity of character within our organisation and the richness this brings.

4. Roles and responsibilities

- 4.1. Our Board has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with equality legislation. Day-to-day operational responsibility, including regular review of this policy, has been delegated to the Chief Executive and Principals for each of the trust's academies.
- 4.2. All senior leaders must set an appropriate standard of behaviour, lead by example and ensure that those they manage adhere to the policy and promote our aims and objectives with regard to equal opportunities. Senior leaders will be given appropriate training on equal opportunities awareness, and recruitment and selection best practice.
- 4.3. All employees have a duty to act in accordance with this policy and not to discriminate against or harass other employees, treating them with dignity at all times. They should also apply this to how they treat members of the public in the provision of services and should support the trust in meeting its commitment to provide equal opportunities for all and promoting diversity in the workplace.

5. Forms of discrimination

- 5.1. Discrimination by or against an employee is generally prohibited unless there is a specific legal exemption. Discrimination may be direct or indirect and it may occur intentionally or unintentionally.
- 5.2. Direct discrimination occurs where someone is treated less favourably because of one or more of the protected characteristics as set out above. In limited circumstances, employers can directly discriminate against an individual for a reason related to any of the protected characteristics where there is an occupational requirement. The occupational requirement must be crucial to the post and a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim. It will only be exceptional circumstances that this will apply in our trust.
- 5.3. Indirect discrimination occurs where someone is disadvantaged by a provision, criterion or practice that also puts people with a protected characteristic at a particular disadvantage. Such a requirement will need to be objectively justified.
- 5.4. Discrimination by association is where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed for association with another individual who has a protected characteristic.
- 5.5. Discrimination by perception is where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed based on a perception that a person has a particular protected characteristic irrespective of whether they do have that protected characteristic (this does not include marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity).
- 5.6. Victimisation is also prohibited. This is less favourable treatment of someone who has complained or given information about discrimination or harassment or supported someone else's complaint.
- 5.7. Harassment related to any of the protected characteristics is prohibited. Harassment is unwanted conduct that has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity, or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them. Pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership are not protected directly under the harassment provisions. However, pregnancy and maternity harassment would amount to harassment related to sex, and harassment related to civil partnership would amount to harassment related to sexual orientation.

- 5.8. Third-party harassment occurs where an employee is harassed and the harassment is related to a protected characteristic (other than marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity), by third parties such as parents and carers, clients or customers.
- 5.9. Unconscious bias is attitudes or stereotypes that affect decisions in an unconscious manner and may influence decisions about recruitment, promotion and performance management.
- 5.10. Part-time and fixed-term staff should be treated the same as comparable full-time or permanent staff and enjoy no less favorable terms and conditions (on a pro-rata basis where appropriate) unless treatment is justified.

6. Applying our policy to recruitment and selection

- 6.1. We aim to ensure that no job applicant suffers discrimination because of any of the protected characteristics. Our recruitment procedures are reviewed regularly to ensure that individuals are treated based on their relevant skills and abilities. All applicants will be provided with a copy of our Recruitment Privacy Notice which sets out how we will gather, process, and hold the personal data of individuals during the recruitment process.
- 6.2. Job selection criteria are reviewed prior to the recruitment process to ensure that they are relevant to the job. Shortlisting of applicants should be done by more than one person wherever possible.
- 6.3. Job advertisements should avoid stereotyping or using wording that may discourage groups with a particular protected characteristic from applying.
- 6.4. We will take reasonable steps, where appropriate depending on the situation, to ensure that our vacancies are advertised to a diverse labour market and, where relevant, to particular groups that have been identified as disadvantaged or underrepresented in our trust.
- 6.5. Applicants will not be asked about health or disability before a job offer is made, other than where it is necessary to;
 - a) establish if an applicant can perform an intrinsic part of the job (subject to any reasonable adjustments).
 - b) establish if any reasonable adjustments need to be made to enable an applicant to have a fair interview or assessment.
 - c) carry out equal opportunities monitoring (which will not form part of the decision-making process).
- 6.6. Applicants will not be asked about past or current pregnancy or future intentions related to pregnancy. Applicants will not be asked about matters concerning age, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, or gender reassignment.
- 6.7. We are required by law to ensure that all employees are entitled to work in the UK. Assumptions about immigration status should not be made based on appearance, name or apparent nationality. All prospective employees, regardless of nationality, must be able to produce original specified documents before employment starts to satisfy current immigration legislation.
- 6.8. To ensure that this policy is operating effectively, and to identify groups that may be underrepresented or disadvantaged in our trust we monitor diversity data as part of the recruitment process and as set out in our Recruitment Privacy Notice and Data Protection Policy. Provision of this information is voluntary and it will not adversely affect an individual's success at recruitment or any other decision related to their employment. The information is removed from applications before short listing and kept in an anonymised format solely for the purposes stated in this policy. Analysing this data helps us take appropriate steps to avoid discrimination and improve equality and diversity.

7. Applying our policy to training, promotion, pay decisions and conditions of service

- 7.1. All employees will be provided with a copy of our Workforce Privacy Notice which sets out how we will collect, hold and share personal data of individuals during their employment.
- 7.2. Employees training needs will be identified through the Professional Development and Review process. All employees will be given appropriate access to training for their job and in order to enable them to progress within the trust.
- 7.3. Pay and promotion decisions will be based on an employee's performance (where relevant), skills and experience as detailed in our Pay Policy.
- 7.4. Our conditions of service, benefits and facilities are reviewed regularly to ensure that they are available to all employees who should have access to them and that there are no unlawful obstacles to accessing them.

8. Applying our policy when terminating employment and at the end of employment

- 8.1. We will ensure that redundancy criteria and procedures are fair and objective and are not directly or indirectly discriminatory.
- 8.2. We will also ensure that disciplinary procedures and penalties are applied without discrimination, whether they result in disciplinary warnings, dismissal or other disciplinary action.
- 8.3. When responding to reference requests, we will ensure that references provide a true, fair and accurate reflection of the employee that is equally not misleading to a potential employer.

9. Disability discrimination

- 9.1. If you are disabled or become disabled, we encourage you to tell us about your condition so that we can support you as appropriate.
- 9.2. If you experience difficulties at work because of your disability, you may wish to contact your line manager to discuss any reasonable adjustments that would help overcome or minimise the difficulty. Your line manager may wish to consult with you and your medical adviser(s) about possible adjustments. We will consider the matter carefully and try to accommodate your needs within reason. If we consider a particular adjustment would not be reasonable, we will explain our reasons and try to find an alternative solution where possible.

- 9.3. We will monitor the physical features of our premises to consider whether they place disabled employees or job applicants at a substantial disadvantage compared to other employees. Where reasonable, we will take steps to improve access for employees who have a disability.

10. Equality Objectives

These objectives are also referred to as our EDI Pillars of action

11. Breaches of this policy

- 11.1. If you believe that you may have been discriminated against or have been subject to harassment, you are encouraged to raise the matter through our Grievance Procedure.
- 11.2. Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated in accordance with the relevant procedure. Employees who make such allegations in good faith will not be victimised or treated less favourably as a result. False allegations which are found to have been made in bad faith will, however, be dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedure.

11.3. Any member of staff who is found to have committed an act of discrimination or harassment will be subject to disciplinary action. Such behaviour may constitute gross misconduct and, as such, may result in summary dismissal. We take a strict approach to serious breaches of this policy.

12. Review of policy

12.1. This policy is reviewed every 2 years by the trust in consultation with the recognised trade unions. We will monitor the application and outcomes of this policy to ensure it is working effectively.
